

HINCKLEY CARNIVAL COMMITTEE

Hinckley Carnival – Sunday 5th June 2011

Hinckley Carnival Committee welcomes you to this year's Carnival and hopes that you will have a very happy and enjoyable day.

In order that everyone has fun safely, we are asking you to abide by the following do's and don'ts. These are not optional and they are a requirement of our local authority. The Carnival Committee has a Safety team which is available for advice and information, prior to the event – see below.

Procession Floats

Do's

1. Please ensure that all equipment and other objects are securely tethered to the float.
2. Please ensure that in hot weather conditions, a good supply of bottled water is carried in the cab of the vehicle
3. Please ensure a good ratio of adults to children

Don't

1. Please do not take any alcohol or drugs, other than prescribed medicines, onto any vehicle. Please do not smoke on the float.
2. Please do not encourage members of the public to throw coins onto the float.
3. Please do not throw anything off the vehicle at the crowds.
4. Please do not carry any passengers on the float from the set up and staging area to the carnival procession starting area.
